This unique and brilliant book is a history of human knowledge. Before the invention of printing, a trained memory was of vital importance. Based on a technique of impressing 'places' and 'images' on the mind, the ancient Greeks created an elaborate memory system which in turn was inherited by the Romans and passed into the European tradition, to be revived, in occult form, during the Renaissance.

She unveils the assumptions about memory behind the everyday language, metaphors and technical terms of this period. The assumptions are often startling, and change the way we see the book, reading, meditation and memory.
